NOSE: Intense and persistent, fruity notes of raspberry jam, blueberry, blackberry, with hints of violet.

TASTE: Sweet, fresh, velvety, with a long-lasting blackcurrant aftertaste.

INTERNATIONAL PAIRINGS: Cake with dried fruit – Greece, Roquefort – France

SERVING TEMPERATURE: 10–12° C

CURIOSITY: According to legend, after Judas died, he repented for betraying Jesus. Upon being forgiven, he was resurrected in Broni, Oltrepò Pavese. The townspeople, recognizing him, wanted to kill him, but Judas healed the vines of disease. In gratitude, the locals named the wine after him, hence the name "Sangue di Giuda" (Blood of Judas).
