Riesling DOC

Dry Still White Wine

An excellent wine for aperitifs and appetizers, especially seafood-based dishes, including shellfish, mollusks, and grilled fish. It also pairs beautifully with white meats.

CAMPAIGN FINANCED ACCORDING TO REG. EU No. 1308/2013

Riesling / DOC Oltrepò Pavese:

ORIGIN: Oltrepò Pavese

VINE VARIETY: Riesling Renano and Italico

SOIL: Clayey, slimy with arenaceous limestone and gypsum located around the 45° parallel north.

GRAPE CULTIVATION: Spalliera and Guyot

HARVEST: Handpicked in small crates

VINIFICATION: Crushing and destemming of the grapes, cryomaceration for aroma extraction, gentle pneumatic pressing, and fermentation at a controlled temperature of 16°C with selected yeasts.

AGING: In stainless steel tanks. The wine undergoes numerous analytical checks during aging to ensure its integrity.

BOTTLING: Cold sterile

ALCOHOL CONTENT: 12,5% vol

COLOUR: Straw yellow with golden highlights.

NOSE: Distinctly aromatic with notes of fresh fruit, pear, peach, and apricot, along with floral fragrances.

TASTE: Dry, with a fresh, savory flavor and a pleasant acidic note.

INTERNATIONAL PAIRINGS: Avocado, Guacamole with shrimp – Balearic Islands, Pata Negra – Spain

SERVING TEMPERATURE: 10-12° C

CURIOSITY: Riesling Italico is one of the most widely grown varieties in Oltrepò Pavese, making it the largest wine-growing area in Italy with 1,500 hectares of vineyard. Its origin is still uncertain, with some suggesting it descends from Anicea Gemella, a grape used by the Romans, while others believe it may have originated in France or Central Europe, later spreading to Veneto under Austro-Hungarian rule.
